11th International Conference on Urban Health
Global Health: 2015 and Beyond
Exchange Auditorium, Manchester Central Convention Centre

Wednesday 5 March 2013: Global Women’s Health

09.00-10.30 Opening plenary including Dr Howard Koh, Assistant Secretary for Health, USA

11.00-12.30 Session: Quality of Life and Reproductive Health
Chair: Professor Ann Thomson, The University of Manchester, UK
Welcome: Professor Dame Tina Lavender The University of Manchester, UK

- Dr Weston Khisa, Obstetrician/Gynaecologist, Kenyatta National Hospital, Kenya
  Restoration of Women’s Dignity through Fistula Surgery in Africa
- Dr David Richmond, RCOG, UK
  Quality of Care in Reproductive Health: What’s it all about?
- Professor Lorraine Culley, De Montfort University, UK
  The global baby business: reproductive technologies and women’s well-being

12.40-13.45 Session: Global Women’s Health
Chair: Professor Dame Tina Lavender The University of Manchester, UK

- Dr Rebecca Smyth, UK
  Systematic review of postnatal interventions to prevent major morbidity and mortality in the postnatal period
- Dr Ian Hampson, UK
  A phase 1/2 trial of a self applied, non-surgical treatment for HPV related high-grade cervical neoplasia
- Dr Elizabeth Kimani, Kenya
  ‘If she sits with the child breastfeeding, who will fend for her?’ Factors affecting actualization of the WHO breastfeeding recommendations in urban poor settings
- Dr Suryane Susante, UK
  “Maternal death: The elephant in the room”: A grounded theory of community’s perceptions and experiences of maternal death in Aceh, Indonesia

14.00-15.30 Session: Working collaboratively to improve women’s health in low resource settings
Chair: Professor Tony Redmond, The University of Manchester, UK

- Professor Dame Tina Lavender, The University of Manchester, UK
  Working collaboratively: The Lugina Africa Midwives Research Network
- Dr Suzy Elneil, University College London Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, UK
  Female Genital Mutilation: A new way forward in the UK
- Dr Gaynor Maclean, Honorary Fellow Swansea University, UK
  Professional networking – what have we learned to take into post MDG development?
- Marion Surgenor, UHSM, UK
  The Uganda Women’s Health Initiative

16.00-17.30 Closing plenary chaired by Alex Ross, WHO
11th International Conference on Urban Health
Global Health: 2015 and Beyond
Exchange Auditorium, Manchester Central Convention Centre

Thursday 6 March 2013: Emergency Humanitarian Assistance

9.00-10.30
Session: Plenary

11.00-12.30
Session: Emergency Humanitarian Practice – Policy & Practice
Chair: Michael von Bertele, Save the Children, UK
Discussant: Dr Ian Norton, WHO

- Dr Joanna Macrae, DFID, UK
  Bringing evidence into humanitarian practice (video presentation)
- Professor Tony Redmond, The University of Manchester, UK
  The professionalization of the humanitarian space
- Dr Rony Brauman, MSF, France
  Emergency Humanitarian Assistance: Response or resilience?
- Ben Dempsey, Save the Children, UK
  Whose humanitarianism counts? How localised humanitarianisms can shape future action

14.00-15.30
Session: Planning and delivering health in humanitarian settings
Chair: Professor Tony Redmond, The University of Manchester, UK

- Mr David Nott, UK
  Surgical training for the austere environment
- Dr Amy Hughes, UKIETR, University of Manchester, UK
  The UKIETR response to Typhoon Haiyan, the Philippines
- Dr Anisa Jafar, The University of Manchester, UK
  Review of medical record-keeping by Foreign Medical Teams in Humanitarian crises delivers papers by home medical teams
- Frances Hill, Research Partners Manager, ELRHA, UK
  Research and Realism: Effective Partnerships for Humanitarian Impact
- Aala El-Khani, The University of Manchester, UK
  An exploration of parenting needs in war and refugee situations

16.00-18.00
Session: Plenary
Professor Tony Redmond, The University of Manchester, UK presenting on behalf of Dr. Dana Van Alphen, Pan American Health Organisation/WHO
Making cities resilient in low income countries

other speakers include Alex Ross (WHO), John Newton (Public Health England), Chris Webster (Hong Kong) and Billie Giles-Corti (Melbourne).
11th International Conference on Urban Health
Global Health: 2015 and Beyond
Exchange Auditorium, Manchester Central Convention Centre

Friday 7 March 2013: Global Health Policy and Practice

9.00-10.30
Plenary

11.00-12.30
Session: Global Health Policy into Practice
Chair: Professor Tony Redmond, The University of Manchester, UK

- Professor Mukesh Kapila, UK & Dr Nick Bantvala, WHO
  Health in the post-2015 United Nations development agenda
- Antony Duttine, Handicap International, USA
  An age-old challenge: Is global policy reacting to new health trends?
- Dr Sally Theobald, Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine, UK
  Building gender responsive health systems in post conflict contexts: Opportunities and challenges
- Jonty Roland, APPG Global Health, UK
  Connecting Communities: Why and how we should support overseas volunteering from the NHS

14.00-15.30
Session: Global Health Case Studies
Chair: Professor Tony Redmond, The University of Manchester, UK

- Sally Jewsbury & Karen Livingstone, UK
  Developing effective, efficient and economic health related overseas volunteers
- Claudine Storbeck, South Africa
  Paediatric hearing loss in developing countries: challenging underestimates of the global burden of disease and supporting action for change
- Obi Ojimiwe, UK
  Nigeria: Performance-Based Funding and the Emerging Discourse of Seriousness
- Elizabeth Kimani, Kenya
  Double burden of malnutrition in urban settings
- Anne Dorothée Slovic, Brazil
  Impacts of air pollution public policies in urban areas in the context of global environmental health: Sao Paulo, New York, Paris

16.00-17.30
Keynote debate: including Professor Mukesh Kapila, The University of Manchester, UK